

Dear
Parktown Headache Clinic

Have been suffering bad migraines for good several years have travelled to see many doctors any nobody could find the cause to the problem but just found it to be bad stress with all the disappointment I finally come across a great solution in confessing myself to see the headache clinic and nothing but superb results occurred with great nurses and doctors.

I thank the headache clinic and all working staff a million you really made a good difference within my life

XOXO
